

The Conductor Companion Web App

Learn how to use the Conductor here!

- The Companion Web App

The Companion Web App

Once you navigate to <http://localhost:30000>, you will find yourself on a web page hosted on a server running locally on your PC that connects to the Stream Chamber.

This web app, called the "Conductor", is how you set the values of different things inside the Stream Chamber, and includes a few different sections to help you fine tune the controls.

- Main Control Panel
- Main Details Panel
-